CRAFT COUNCIL Annex GALLERY

SPRING again!

May 9 – May 30, 2010

DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES
April 27, 2010

The Craft Council Gallery celebrates spring with works in a variety of media that convey the pleasures of the season.

Robin's song, a chattering brook, wee bright flower faces - all these things delight our winter-weary hearts when spring returns. Spring again!, is a juried exhibition that is inspired by spring's rich colors and textures. Buds, blossoms, warm breezes and all the delights of nature will be expressed in textiles, clay, wood, paper and a variety of other materials.

ELIGIBILITY/ CRITERIA

You can submit up to two works (they can be sets)

Exhibition works will be juried. All entries may not be accepted.

All works must be for sale

Dimensions are not restricted but large works may be limited .

All entries MUST BE READY TO INSTALL. All works should come with specific installation, hanging and/or other instructions in writing.

The attached entry form should be filled out and enclosed with your entries. If more than one entry, each should be clearly marked as 1 or 2.

There is a $20 entry fee for exhibitors who are not members of this Council.

Works will be accepted on the basis of excellence in technique, use of materials and design and connection to theme, and those which build a cohesive exhibition. Works should have been created in the past two years

You are required to set the retail price of your work (the price it will sell for). If your work is sold through the Gallery, a commission will be deducted from the retail price.

While the committee makes every effort to include a broad range of visual art, the Gallery's priority is craft and craft based art.
